

I am seeking your vote as a moderate Republican candidate for California State Assembly. In a district that traditionally leans Democratic, I will bring a fresh perspective to Sacramento that transcends party lines by focusing on principles that unite us to make California a beacon of hope and prosperity.

As a pro-choice advocate, I believe in a woman's right to make decisions about her own body. In addition, I proudly support marriage equality, recognizing that love is a fundamental right. Our society requires policies that respect individual choices.

Economic prosperity is central to my agenda. I will advocate for promoting common-sense fiscal policies that encourage job creation, support small businesses, and stimulate local economies by cutting burdensome taxes & regulations and creating incentives for all Californians (not just special interests).

In addition, I am committed to reforming our public education system to ensure our children can succeed in the 21st century and beyond in a safe and invigorating environment. Our current educational outcomes are not acceptable, and we must hold our leaders accountable while also providing them the tools and resources to deliver for our next generations.

A vote for me is a vote to end the autocracy in Sacramento and for a transparent and accountable government. Together, let's build a California that values individual freedoms, celebrates diversity, ensures a world-class education for every child, and embraces economic growth for all.

Your vote for me is a vote for a brighter, more prosperous future for all Californians!
