

I am a retired educator, living and working in the San Lorenzo Valley, Area 4

My experience as an educator spans over 50 years as a teacher, an assistant principal and superintendent. My breadth of experience in various levels of education has provided me an abundance of knowledge of the operations schools. I am passionate in providing a quality education for the children in San Lorenzo Valley.