

I'm fighting to give people opportunities for a better life. As your U.S. Representative, an Afghanistan War veteran, and a former prosecutor, I've dedicated my career to giving back to our community and country by serving and fighting for the people and values of our home.

I'm working to reduce the cost of living with more affordable housing and accessible healthcare, and rescind tariffs to lower prices.

I'm securing federal investment for local infrastructure to boost productivity and prosperity.

I'm holding this Administration accountable for its overreaching mass deportation policy that creates chaos in communities, harms American citizens, and hurts our economy.

I'm working on immigration reform, including legalization for law-abiding working families, while supporting a secure border.

I'm promoting jobs and small businesses through our diverse economy of technology, hospitality, agriculture, education, and research.

I'm defending our environment by protecting our coastline from oil drilling, promoting agricultural sustainability, and creating policies to prevent wildfires and fight climate change.

I'm standing up for women's reproductive rights and equality.

I'm delivering federal funding for law enforcement to fight crime.

I'm fighting to reclaim Congress's Constitutional authorities to properly check the Executive Branch.

I'm upholding our democratic values by supporting secure elections and our international allies fighting for and maintaining peace.

I'll continue to fight for the people and values of California's 19th Congressional District with hard work, new ideas, and the will to work together to get things done.
